PAGE 322, first line. "JOHN WENTWORTH." He came to Greenfield, N. Y., from Boston, Mass., where he had served an apprenticeship to the tailoring business, with an uncle. He died in 1822; his wife died 8 January, 1859. Their "four daughters and one son," all born in Greenfield, N. Y., were as follows:

Y., with her daughter, Mrs. Winters. Her children were: Benjamin Wait; Stephen Wait, lives at Rose, Wayne Co., N. Y.; Hiram Wait; Eunice M. Wait, married —— Ham, and moved to Michigan; Susan Wait, married John Dalson, and is now a widow at Grafton, N. Y.; Prudence Wait, married Isaac Hickox, and lived in Michigan; and Maria Wait, married Daniel Winters, of Grafton, N. Y. The children given to this "Sally" on page 322, vol. II. belonged to another Wait family.

Line 11 from bottom. "II. David[6], born 23 August, 1804," left home when not more than thirteen years of age. He lives at Cluzy, Clinton Co., N. Y., unmarried.

Line 3 from bottom. "V. John, born 12 August, 1808."

Everything following these words, including the first nine lines on page 323, belongs to another "John," viz., John,[7] son of Joseph[6] (1179) and Sarah (Vernilye) Wentworth, which see on page 345 of vol. I.

The John[6], son of James[5] and Susannah (Marble) Wentworth, married, 1st, near Johnstown, Fulton Co., N. Y., about 1834, Louisa, daughter of Elijah Howard; lived with her a short time, and then left, having a son:

1. Elijah Howard[7] Wentworth, born May, 1835; he was brought up by his grandparents. His grandmother dying, and his mother having married Nelson Miller, he went, in 1845, with his mother and her husband, with his mother's sister (Betsey, wife of Henry Hines), and with his grandfather, to Aurora, Kane Co., Ill. His mother died 24 April, 1853, at Batavia, Kane Co., Ill.: his grandfather died in January, 1847, at Montgomery, Kane Co., Ill.; his step-father, Nelson Miller, married again, and lives at Tennessee Station, McDonough Co., Ill. In 1853, Elijah H.[7] Wentworth started for San Francisco, Cal., wrote back from Salt Lake city on his way there, and has not since been heard from.

   John[6] Wentworth, father of this Elijah H.[7], was a schoolmaster. Visiting some maternal cousins, viz., Henry Marble and Benjamin Marble, near Fallsburgh, Sullivan Co., N. Y., he determined to add the name of Marble to his own, and to remain with them. This John[6], on page 322, vol. II., is confounded with John[7] son of Joseph[6] (1170), as is explained on page 345 of vol. II. He settled in the neighboring town of Liberty, Sullivan Co., N. Y., and married, 2d, Cornelia B., daughter of Cornelius and Rachel Countryman (both of whom are now living with their son Watkins Countryman, at Avoca, Iowa Co., Wis.). John[6] lived at Liberty until 1868, when he moved, with his family, to Muscoda, Grant Co., Wis., six miles from his father-in-law: he himself passing much of his time at Boaz, Richland Co., Wis.

John[6] and Cornelia B. (Countryman) Wentworth-Marble had :

2. Cornelius[7] Wentworth-Marble, born in 1849.
3. James Henry[7] Wentworth-Marble, born in 1853.
4. Catharine[7] Wentworth-Marble, born in 1856.
5. Rachel[7] Wentworth-Marble, born in 1859.
6. Orlina[7] Wentworth-Marble, born in 1862.
7. Elias[7] Wentworth-Marble, born in 1864.
8. Sheridan[7] Wentworth-Marble, born in 1867.

All these children are at Muscoda, Wis., except James Henry[7], who is still at Liberty, N. Y.

Page 323, line 10. "VI. Stephen C.[6]" His family will be found corrected in "Additions and Corrections" to page 282, vol. I., under James[5] (883)." See page 378, vol. II.

Page 357, line 15 from bottom. Continue the note to the word "Preacher" found on page 51, vol. I., line 3, as follows :

The question has been often asked, "How much of a preacher was Elder William Wentworth?" As we know nothing of him after his christening in England to his signing the combination at Exeter, N. H., we can say nothing of his early education. We know he was not a clergyman in the ordinary acceptation of the word. Yet he did preach, and was engaged by the year to do so. Dover records show that he was a "Ruling Elder" in that church. The following is all the information touching his writing out his sermons that in all probability can be gathered at this late day.

He was in the employment of the people at Exeter, N. H. (as intelligent as the people of any portion of New Hampshire), when he gave, in 1693, the farm at Cochecho to his son Benjamin.[2] Now Ephraim,[2] if not a younger son, was the next youngest, and lived near if not adjoining Benjamin.[2] Perhaps their father lived between them. It is to be regretted that the land inventoried at his death cannot now be traced out; every effort has been made to do so. The land of Benjamin[2] is still in the possession of his descendants; and that of Ephraim[2] remained with them until within the remembrance of many persons now living, it having descended to his son Ezekiel[3] (57), whose first wife was his cousin Dorothy[3] (72), daughter of Benjamin.[2] By a second wife, this Ezekiel[3] (57) had an only daughter Dorothy[4] (269), who inherited the homestead; she married a grandson of Benjamin,[2] who was Evans[1] (296). It was in this family, where there had been two intermarriages with the descendants of the youngest two sons of Elder William Wentworth, and who were occupying the same premises all the while, that persons now living, grandsons of the above Dorothy[4] (269), assert they saw the sermons of Elder William under circumstances which they themselves thus describe:

LOWELL, MASS., August 17th, 1869.

Quite early in my boyhood my grandmother showed me these sermons and desired me to read one of them to her, and they were alluded to by her and seen by me on three or four occasions afterwards. It is impossible for me to state the year when I last saw them; but, as you ask me to guess the last time, I do so by saying it was 45 years ago, say about 1824. The sermons were in an old chest, which, from its antique appearance, might have been the property of Elder William. I remember it well, and describe it as about five feet in length, two feet high, and of the same width at the bottom, and perhaps two inches narrower at the top. There were cleats on the lid, so that the same, when shut, inclosed the front and ends of the chest. The sermons were written on foolscap paper, folded so that a sheet would make eight pages.

The paper was very yellow, and the edges were worn as if it had been subjected to much use. From the appearance of the sermons, as they were laid upon each other in two piles, I should judge there were fifty of them at least.

As to their loss by fire, I have no evidence. The house in which my grandmother Dorothy[4] (269) lived from my earliest recollection of her, and where she died, was built early in the present century, say from 1807 to 1812, and it remained upon its first foundation until after her youngest daughter, Eunice[5] (823), married Stephen Hanson; when it was removed to its present site near the turnpike, a few rods from the dwelling-house of Bartholomew[5] (851) Wentworth. An elder daughter, Mercy[5] (819), married Jacob[5] (814) Wentworth, son of Daniel[4]; and it is most probable that the old chest was taken by her. I subsequently purchased the Jacob[5] (814) Wentworth farm for my mother. I never heard of any fire on that estate. My brother, George T.[6], who has always remained in Dover, should have a better recollection of the facts than myself.

I think your reasoning in regard to the manner in which the chest and sermons came into the possession of my grandmother very just, and the inferences well warranted.

The father of the present Bartholomew[5] (851) Wentworth had the same name. The farm belonging to the father was divided between his two sons, Bartholomew[5] (851) and Hall[5] (852) Wentworth. Hall[5] had the portion lying next to Elder William's supposed farm, and still owns it. The division was made by arbitrators since my recollection, my grandfather Evans[4] (290) being one of them.

TAPPAN WENTWORTH.†

Dover, N. H., August 19th, 1869.

I received a note from my brother Tappan, wishing me to send the name of the present occupant of the land on which my grandmother Dorothy[4] (269) was born.

March 17th, 1808, Evans[4] (290) Wentworth and wife Dorothy[4] in her own right deeded to William K. Atkinson and Samuel Bragg, Jr., three acres and one hundred and forty-two rods, bounded by lands of Daniel Ricker northerly, westerly by other land of † Tappan[6] (2812).

Atkinson and Bragg, and easterly by land of Bartholomew[5] (851) Wentworth. In the same deed, Dorothy[4] conveys her right in this piece, and also her right to forty acres "which fell to her as the heir of her father, Ezekiel[3] (57) Wentworth, excepting and reserving out of the same, one square rod of land heretofore used as a burying-place, where are deposited the remains of the father of said Dorothy[4] and some others."

This property is now in the possession of Charles W. Rollins, who purchased the same of Thomas J. Canney some twelve years ago. Canney purchased of the heirs of said Atkinson. The track of the Boston and Maine Railroad runs directly over this burying-place, a few rods north of Rollins' dwelling-house; a little easterly of this "place," and across the railroad track, is situated the Wentworth burying-place of this generation and a portion of the former, in the westerly end of Hall[5] (852) Wentworth's field, and where Evans[4] and Dorothy[4] Wentworth lie buried. They sleep within hearing distance of Ezekiel[3] Wentworth, her father, and perhaps Elder William[1], her great grandfather. The house standing on this land was burned after my grandmother was born, as I have heard her say; but at what age she was I do not know. I remember very well the fact of seeing two or three birchen buckets which hung in the attic where I slept when I lived with my grandfather Evans[4], which were filled with papers written on, and that I have looked in them; but as it was while very young and before I could read or write, I could not tell the contents of these papers. But I have heard my grandmother say, that these buckets and contents were saved from the burning house, and that they contained sermons of Elder William.

The burying-place of Elder William is probably now under the Boston and Maine Railroad track. I do not know what became of these birchen buckets. I never saw them or any of their contents after I left my grandmother's, when about twelve years old. In all probability, after grandfather died, and when the property was divided and the estate settled, these ancient articles and contents were burnt as useless by those who could not have any knowledge of their present or future value.

I say that I saw the papers in the birch buckets more than once or twice prior to 1826, the year grandfather died. One of these buckets hung within reach of me as I laid upon my bed, and I have overhauled it many times. My recollection is, that they were slips of paper, and looked old at that time. There might have been some stitched together in book form, and I can almost remember sufficient to form an impression in my mind at this time that there were some. I never saw these papers or buckets after grandfather died.

I remember very well that when my grandmother came up stairs and found me rummaging over the contents of these buckets (which I did frequently), she was very particular to tell me not to lose any of those papers, saying that they were Elder William's sermons, or words to that effect. The chest that my brother Tappan[6] (2342) speaks of may have become the receptacle of these papers after I saw them in the buckets. After I left, which took place soon after grandfather's death, there might have been a settlement and division of the personal property and household stuff, and the buckets were either given away or destroyed, and grandmother might have transferred the papers found in them to this chest, or there might have been another old chest in existence, prior to this time.

PAGE 360, line 17. Continue note to page 101, vol. I., so as to read:

Rev. John Taylor of Milton, Mass., married, 1st, at Portsmouth, N. H., 9 April, 1730, Elizabeth Rogers. When Samuel[4] (101) Sherburne made his will, in 1765, he speaks of his sister Dorothy[4] (101), wife of Hon. Peter Gilman, as deceased, and gives property to her children Christopher[5] Rymes, Nathaniel[5] Rogers, and Dorothy[5] Taylor, and to her granddaughter, Nancy[6] Barrell. From this it would appear that Dorothy[4] (101) Sherburne had at least one child by each of her three prior husbands, although none is given her by Rev. John Taylor on page 360, vol. II. It would seem from this that Hon. Peter Gilman had no child by her, and that the daughter, Abigail Gilman, given on page 107, vol. I., must have been by his first wife.

PAGE 362, line 9 from bottom. In continuation of the "Thing" note at the bottom of page 114, vol. I., it should be stated that it has lately been ascertained that the John Thing who married Mehitabel Stevens had a second wife who was Love Wentworth, and that he had by her Josiah Thing and Annie Thing. This

* George T.[7] (2319.)

Love Wentworth must have been the widow of Thomas[3] (30.) Her maiden name is not known. John Thing's last child by his first wife was born in 1706.

PAGE 365, line 14. Correct as follows:

"Theophilus Sheafe[5] Harris should be Theodore Sheafe[5] Harris."

PAGE 366, line 14 from bottom. In continuation of the additions to the family of Joshua Pierce in note to page 183, vol. I., it should be stated that Elizabeth, his first wife, died 13 January, 1717-18, and that he married 2d, 5 March, 1718-19, Elizabeth Wade, of Dover, N. H.

Daniel Pierce and Anna Rindge were married at Portsmouth, N. H., 29 October, 1742. She died 19 October, 1748. They had:

Anna Pierce, born 21 October, 1743.
Joshua Pierce, born 3 November, 1744, died 16 July, 1748.
John Pierce, born 19 August, 1746.
Joseph Pierce, born 25 June, 1748, died 1812.

PAGE 365, line 25. Correct so as to read:

"Triphena[7], daughter of Jesse and Sarah[6] (Wentworth) Sherwood," as given on page 397, line 6, vol. II.

PAGE 371, line 8. "3. Sarah Gilman" was baptized 19 January, 1622, instead of 26 December, 1617, as given.

PAGE 383, line 6. When Mrs. Nevinson was killed, "the shaft entered the side of her head," not "heart."

PAGE 383, line 1. Since the "Additions and Corrections" there given to the family of Mary[5] (366) who married George Brindley, as on page 308, vol. I., the author has gleaned the following from the London Gentleman's Magazine:

979. I. Mary[6] Brindley married, 1st, at Fulham, England, 11 November, 1783, Charles Moody; 2d at London, 17 October, 1804, Dr. Charles D. Nevinson, of Somerset Street, Portland square. She was called "Mrs. Moody, of Coopersale, Essex." The following is appended to the announcement of her death:

"Mrs. Nevinson was a most accomplished and interesting woman. She left two children by Dr. Nevinson [one a son, born 15 November, 1804], and was mother to Lieut. Moody of the 36th Regiment of Portsmouth garrison, who being under orders to embark for the Mediterranean, had set off the same morning to take leave of her, and arrived at her house soon after she had been brought in a corpse." Nothing is known, by the author, of her children by Dr. Nevinson, nor of the order of the births of the children by Mr. Moody, save that George W.[7] is given as the second son.

1. Charles Moody[7], lieutenant in army, and was alive at his mother's death, June, 1817.
2. Mary Jane[7] Moody. Her grandmother, Mary[5] (366) speaks of her in her will as the "late Mrs. Roberts." The Gentleman's Magazine says:
   "Feb. 26, 1818, died at Dr. Nevinson's, Mrs Roberts, widow of J. W. Roberts, formerly Chief of the East India Company's China Establishment." Perhaps she was the oldest child.
3. George Wentworth[7] Moody. "Died 2 November, 1810, at Halifax, N. S., in his 16th year, George Wentworth Moody, of the Royal Navy, second son of Mrs. Nevinson, of Somerset street. In returning to his ship Atalanta, the boat was overset, and this young officer drowned." This would make him born 1795.
4. Catherine Frances[7] Moody, born 1797; married, 15 February, 1823, at St. George's, Hanover square, Charles Arthur Gore, Esq., of the 1st Regiment of Life Guards.

980. II. Thomas[6] Brinley, made Lieut.-Col. 4th Foot, in British army, in 1805, and died at Barbadoes, 5 August, 1805, aged 36.

982. IV. Wentworth[6] Brinley, died 17 January, 1807.

983. V. William Burch[6] Brinley, died 1812, in his 41st year.

There was an adopted daughter of Gen. George Brinley, of Halifax, whose marriage is thus noticed: "At Halifax, 25 June, 1810, Thomas D'Avenant Cotton, of the Royal Fusileers, to Miss Mary Hadley Brinley."

Page 353, line 8 from bottom. After the words "In 982. V.," "line 6 from bottom," should read, "line 8 from bottom." It was Joanna Allen, widow of William B. Brinley, who married Hon. S. G. W. Archibald.

Page 384, line 11. Add to Frances Augusta 5, daughter of Benning,[5] the following:

"Her husband, William Atkins Bowyer, who dropped the name of Bowyer, afterwards resumed it, and the family is now known by the name of Bowyer instead of Atkins." Line 18. Rev. Samuel Cobb was Rev. Samuel Wyatt Cobb.

Page 392, line 18. Continue additions to Annabella[6] (1000. V.) of page 325, vol. I., by stating that her husband, Hon. Francis Gore, died at Brighton, England, 3 November, 1852, aged 85.

Page 398, line 10 from bottom. The name of "3. Almira[7] Wentworth," is improperly indented so far in the page that it is in danger of being confounded with the names of the eighth generation.

Same page, line 12 from bottom. "4. Margaret[8] Kelly" was born 10 January, 1858, instead of as on that page erroneously given.

Page 399, line 2. Isaac G. Shafer is the name of the man who married Catherine[7] Wentworth, instead of Isaac C. Shafer.

Page 413, line 16. Correct Oliver[7] McElroy, so as to read Olivia[7] McElroy.

Page 416, line 8. Make the following corrections:

Albert (instead of "Alfred") Everett[8] Morrill was born 13 September, 1857.

Line 12. Ellen Frances[7] Morrill should read, Eleanor Frances[7] Morrill.

Line 22. George Irwin[8] Morrill should read, George Albert[8] Morrill.

Page 418, line 1. Correct as follows: 3. Elizabeth Alivilda[7] Wentworth should read, Elizabeth Alvilda[7] Wentworth.

Page 420. In the corrections to the family of James[6] (1042) of page 16 of Vol. II., it was erroneously stated that Hannah[7] (2723.c) and James L.[7] (2724. XV) were dead. They reside at Embden, Me. The child of Jefferson[7] (2724) was given as Hannah,[8] when it should have been given as Herman.[8]

Page 428, line 7 from bottom. Lydia T.[7] (2027) had but one husband, Gershom Hamlin, who is now living. It was her eldest daughter, Ellen L.[8] Hamlin, who married October, 1863, Joseph R. Littlefield of Brooks, Me.

Page 432, line 3 from bottom. Maria[7] (3022.a), daughter of Artist[6] and Almira (Arnold) Wentworth of page 41 of Vol. II., is not dead, but resides in Boston, Mass., and has assisted the author in important recent corrections. The date of her father's death is erroneously given as hers.

Page 437, line 10 from bottom. In the additions to Theodore[7] (3427), the following corrections should be made:

The wife of John A.[8] was Phebe B——n, not Ophelia.

Edward L.[8] had:

1. Charles W.[9] born 1849.
2. Hattie[9], born 1851.
3. Emma[9], born 1857.
4. Nancy[9], born 1859.
5. Frederic[9], born 1863.
6. Edward L.[9] born 1866.

Mary L.[8] married Asa Andrews, who was three years in the War of the Rebellion; they had:

1. Martin V.[9] Andrews, born 3 May, 1845; he was in War of the Rebellion.
2. Sarah[9] Andrews, born 28 April, 1847; lost her first husband in the army, and married 2d, John Henderson, who was in the army two years.
3. Grover[9] Andrews, born 4 March, 1849.
4. Theodore[9] Andrews, born 16 January, 1850.
5. John[9] Andrews, born 2 February, 1853.
6. Josephine[9] Andrews.
7. Mary[9] Andrews.
8. Martha Bell[9] Andrews.

Page 450, line 16 from bottom. The correction to Ellis[7] (2823) should be extended back to page 27, Vol. II., line 16, so as to say that Francis A.[7] (2827) was not his brother, but his son, being Francis A.[8] (4901) of page 450, Vol. II. The name should be erased from the children of Simeon.[6]

Page 456, line 1. In continuation of the corrections of page 291, vol. II., to the family of E. Marie Loomis, wife of Hon. John[7] Wentworth, it should be stated that by the Peck Genealogy, just published at Boston by Ira B. Peck, it appears that Deacon Paul Peck (of the twelfth line from the foot of that page) came to this country in the ship "Defence," in 1635, remained in Boston until 1636, and then removed to Hartford, Conn., where his name appears in the list of proprietors in 1639. His will, dated 25 June, 1695, was proven 15 January, 1696. His daughter, Martha Peck, born 1641, married 8 June, 1665, John Cornwell, of Middletown, Conn., where she died 1 March, 1708, and her daughter Hannah Cornwell married Daniel Doolittle, etc.

The name is variously spelled Cornwell and Cornwall.

It also appears by the Peck Genealogy that Rev. Jeremiah Peck (of page 291, vol. II, line 22 from bottom) was son of Deacon William Peck, of whom the manuscripts of Hon. Darius Peck, of Hudson, N. Y., give the following account:

William Peck, New Haven, merchant, from London, born in 1601, with his wife Elizabeth and son Jeremiah accompanied Gov. Eaton and Rev. John Davenport in the ship "Hector" from London, arriving at Boston 26 June, 1637; settled at New Haven in 1638; signed the governmental compact of 4 June, 1639; was admitted freeman 29 October, 1640; was an original proprietor of New Haven; and from 1659 until his death was a deacon of the church in New Haven. His wife Elizabeth died 5 December, 1683, and he married Sarah, the widow of William Holt. He died 4 October, 1694, aged 93, and his gravestone is still standing in the cemetery of New Haven. His children, all by his first wife, were: I. Jeremiah, II. John, III. Joseph, and IV. Elizabeth.

I. Jeremiah[2], oldest son of Deacon William, of New Haven, above-named, born probably in London, 1623, came with his father in 1637: bred at Harvard, says Cotton Mather, but did not graduate; schoolmaster at Guilford, Conn., from 1656 to 1660; there married Johannah, daughter of Robert Kitchell, 12 November, 1656; taught Colony Grammar School at New Haven from 1660 to fall of 1661; minister at Saybrook from 1661 to 1666, where he was probably ordained; next resided at Newark, N. J., in 1667 to 1674, and from 1674 to 1678 at Elizabethtown, N. J., where he was largely interested in lands. In 1670 and again in 1675 declined a call to preach in Woodbridge, N. J. In September, 1678, was invited to settle as a minister in Greenwich, Conn.; in October, 1678, after the death of Leverich, had a similar call from Newtown, L. I.; accepted the call to Greenwich, and late in the fall of 1678 removed from Elizabethtown, N. J., to Greenwich, Conn., where he was the first settled minister, and preached until 1689, when, upon invitation, he removed to Waterbury, Conn., where he was also the first settled minister, and there continued his ministry until his death at Waterbury, 7 June, 1699, in his 77th year.

The following were the children of Rev. Jeremiah Peck: I. Samuel Peck, born in Guilford, Conn., 18 January, 1659. II. Ruth Peck (of page 291, vol. II.), born in New Haven, Conn., 3 April, 1661; married, 1 June, 1681, Jonathan Atwater, son of David Atwater, of New Haven, Conn., whom see below. III. Caleb Peck, born at Saybrook, Conn., in 1663, and died childless. IV.

Ann Peck, born at Saybrook, Conn., in 1665; married, in 1690, Thomas Stanley, son of Capt. John Stanley, of Farmington, Conn. V. Jeremiah Peck, born in Guilford, Conn., or Newark, N. J., in 1667, whose descendants in the male line are all now extinct. VI. Joshua Peck, born in Newark, N. J., in 1673, and died childless.

These children all survived him. His wife died at Waterbury, Conn., about 1711.

Ruth[3] Peck, second child of Rev. Jeremiah Peck, born at New Haven 3 April, 1661; married Jonathan Atwater, 1 June, 1681, and settled there, where her children were born, who were:

1. Joshua Atwater, born 21 February, 1682; died 16 March, 1682.
2. David Atwater, born 5 August, 1683.
3. Jeremiah Atwater, born 31 January, 1685.
4. Mary Atwater, born 31 December, 1686.
5. Ruth Atwater, born 31 December, 1688.
6. Jonathan Atwater, born November, 1690.
7. Lydia Atwater, born 18 April, 1693; died 2 August, 1694.
8. Joseph Atwater, born 9 December, 1694, married, 10 September, 1722, Hannah Doolittle, and had Benjamin Atwater, who married Sarah Hull, who had Benjamin Atwater, who married Mary Harris, and they were the parents of Roxanna, who married Riley Loomis, and they were the parents of Roxanna Marie Loomis, born at Russell, Mass., 24 April, 1817, wife of Hon. John[7] (3589) Wentworth.
9. Stephen Atwater, born 4 December, 1696; died 23 October, 1704.
10. Damaris Atwater, born 9 October, 1698.
11. Lydia Atwater, born 31 July, 1701; died 30 March, 1708.

See pages 431 and 432 of Vol VI., of Sprague's Annals of the American Pulpit.

In 1851, Rev. Edward E. Atwater, of New Haven, Conn., published a pamphlet entitled "A Genealogical Register of the descendants in the male line of David Atwater to the fifth generation." David's son, Jonathan Atwater, was a man of distinction in New Haven, Conn. Doreen William Peck gave him land in his will, and called him therein "My grandson-in-law." Jonathan Atwater died at New Haven 3 June, 1726, aged 70, but the date of his wife's death is not known.

SUPPLEMENTAL ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS TO VOL. I.

PAGE 8, line 2 of note. Instead of "seat of Sir Thomas Wentworth," etc., read: "seat of Earl Fitzwilliam, a descendant of the first Earl of Strafford."

PAGE 45, line 5. Instead of "Wheelwright and thirty-three others," read "thirty-four" others.

PAGE 57, line 8. "There are but two other deeds on record at Exeter" from Elder William,[1] should read "four" instead of "two" The five are: to Peter Coffin, marsh in Dover, 1667, in which his wife Elizabeth joins; to son John,[2] land in Dover, 1 December, 1674; to George Ricker, marsh in Dover, 17 July, 1677; to son Benjamin,[2] as on page 92, Vol. I., 9 May, 1693; and to son Paul,[2] land in Dover, as on page 77, Vol. I., 16 April, 1696, in which Elizabeth made her mark, as she did in deed to Timothy,[2] 27 May, 1696, which is not on record, but is preserved. It is thus seen that wife "Elizabeth" appears in 1667 and 1696.

PAGE 150, line 15 from bottom. Change George E.[7] (3877) to read as follows: George Edgar[7] (3877), born 14 March, 1842, enlisted at Lowell, Mass., 2 October, 1861, in 30th Mass. Infantry; was made Captain in 4th Louisiana Native Guards, 12 January, 1864, and had been promoted to Lieut.-Colonel of 82d colored infantry when mustered out, 22 September, 1866. In 1868 he was elected to the Florida State Senate, and was appointed U. S. Marshal for the Northern District of Florida, in 1869. He married, 19 March, 1861, Susie Wetherby, daughter of Hiram Parker, of Lowell, Mass., and niece of the late Rev. Theodore Parker. He lives at Pensacola, Fla. They had:

1. Louisa Nancy,[8] born at Lowell, Mass., 13 August, 1869.

PAGE 138, line 7. Jacob B.[6] (2324) died in Brownfield, Me., 29 September, 1869.

Page 278, line 12. David[5] (5387) should be David L.[5] He was married in Concord, N. H., not Great Falls.

Page 341, line 16 of note. George Jaffrey was appointed 1766, not 1776.

Page 356, line 11. It is not absolutely certain that Elder William[1] Wentworth made his residence on the house lot, granted by the town of Dover in 1658, but it appears probable. The absence of allusion to any other apparent residence; the fact that this lot was recorded twice, the second time more fully than the first; and the rule that lots for this purpose must be built upon, render it probable that Elder William lived there before settling on the Somersworth lands. This lot is easily found at the present time. About two miles south from Dover City Hall, on the "Neck road," is "Little John's creek," which flows southwesterly into Back river. The lot at the angle of the creek and river, on the south side, was James Nute's twelve-acre lot, granted in 1654. Nute lived upon it. Next south, on the eastern bank of Back river, was Thomas Roberts' lot of four acres; this lot was sold, in 1727, to Joshua Cromwell. The next lot was Elder Wentworth's. It is about due west from the present residence of Otis Tuttle. The lot was bounded "east by highway"; this was not the road known as "Dover Neck road," but one west of it, nearly parallel, and long since abandoned. In 1727, by the deed of Roberts to Cromwell, the elder's lot is mentioned (as a boundary) as "land of Thomas Whitehouse." How it passed into the possession of Whitehouse does not yet appear.

1. Alonzo[8] Barney, born 16 December, 1829; drowned 7 July, 1838.

Boerner, and has three children; (2) Elizabeth[7], md. Thomas Babcock, of Deckertown, New Jersey; (3) Jane[7], md. Joseph Sammis, of Deckertown, New Jersey, and has two children; (4) Helen.[7]

PAGE 469, line 27. Roxanna Marie Loomis, wife of the author of this work, died very suddenly, 5 Feb., 1870, in Troy, N. Y., at the mansion inherited by her from her father Riley Loomis, 212 Third Street. The author was married in Troy, at the former family residence, 42 Second Street, 13 Nov., 1849. Mrs. Wentworth's mother, Roxanna (Atwater) Loomis, also died in Troy, 15 March, 1870, aged 70. Mrs. Wentworth was born at Russell, Mass., 24 April, 1817, at the house of her maternal grandfather, Benjamin Atwater, son of Benjamin, of Cheshire, Conn., who married Phebe Morse (and not Sarah Hull, as given on pages 291 and 471, vol. II.).

Her remains were deposited in the Oakwood Cemetery, with those of her parents, her only brother, and four of her five children. Besides her husband and only child Samuel H.[7] (3397), brother of the author, and nieces Sarah C.[8] (5517), and Lydia C.[8] (5518), were present at the funeral services, which were conducted by Rev. Marvin R. Vincent, D.D., of the First Presbyterian Church, Troy. Her pen had often come to the relief of her husband, while his constant companion in his travels and researches for the contents of this book, in which she felt an untiring interest, and which she lived to see so far completed and in type, as to require a condensation of this the last page, to insert this notice of her death.

INDEXES.

INDEXES.

THREE Indexes will here be found:

I. Index of persons bearing the surname of Wentworth.

II. Index of persons bearing other surname than that of Wentworth.

III. Index of places.

On the indexes of persons, the following suggestions will be useful:

1. Each individual mentioned in these volumes is indexed, and indexed separately from every other. Thus, each one of the one hundred and fifty-three persons named "John Wentworth" is separately mentioned. Every page where the name of a person is given in these volumes is noted against his name in the index. The tabular pedigrees (which precede page 1, vol. I.) are marked "Ped.," with the letter designating each. In a few instances a page is noted on which the reader will not find the name; but in every such case he will find, on examination, that the person is there referred to; and such cases are usually confined to the "additions and corrections." Examiners are also reminded that the name may occur several times on the same page.

2. The entire name is given when known. The reader may know a person only as "John H.," when it may be really "John Hanson," "John Harkness," or "John Henry."

3. Christian names varied in spelling by apparent caprice, are classed as one name; but the variations of spelling are preserved. Thus: "Anna," "Anne," and "Annie," are put together as one name. But names once essentially the same, and now somewhat permanently changed, have their different forms separately indexed. Thus: "Abigail" and "Abby"; "Elizabeth," "Lizzie," and "Betsey"; "Mary" and "Polly," are indexed as distinct names. The examiner who fails to find an "Elizabeth," may find the person as "Betsey." Family names are invariably indexed as they are spelled. Thus: "Halliburton" and "Halyburton"; "Heard" and "Hurd"; "Peirce," "Pierce," and "Pearse," are treated as distinct names, and each will be found in its alphabetical place; but in such cases, cross-references always call the reader's attention to the other forms of the name.

4. Whom a man or woman married is always mentioned in the index, when known. This will aid the examiner who knows whom a given person married.

5. Every individual of Wentworth descent is designated by his own generation figure and serial number. The serial number will thus always identify a given person. The generation figure is always appended to the Christian name, never to a surname. The serial number is sometimes double, thus: "(1061.2)," implying that the name is that of the second child (or in his family) of "1061." The few persons, bearing the name of Wentworth, whose origin cannot, as yet, be traced, are necessarily destitute of both generation figure and serial number, and may be known by this omission. The author hopes to find their descent in time for the next edition of this work; in which will also be given the real names of all persons wrongfully bearing the name of Wentworth.

6. Prefixed to the number of a page there will sometimes be found a star. Thus: "Almeda C.[5] (5080), m. Osborne Davis, II:* 397, 456." The star signifies that what was said on page 397 is materially corrected on the page afterwards mentioned. The starred page is indexed just as it was printed, but the reader must not rely on what is there given, and must examine all subsequent references. But a page to which something is afterwards merely added does not need nor receive the star; the subsequent references are sufficient.

7. No separation is made between the English and American families, and each preserves its own generation figure. In reality, the English generation figures run from one to thirty-one; in this line, Elder William, the emigrant, would be William[21]; but for convenience he is made to begin a new series, as William[1], and all his descendants are numbered from him. To prevent any confusion, it should be remembered that all generation figures beyond ten are necessarily English; and all from one to ten are always American, except in eleven cases, viz.: Reginald[1], Henry[2], Richard[3], Michael[4], Henry[5], Hugh[6], William[7], Robert[8], William[9], William[10], and Richard[10]; and these persons are noted thus: "Reginald (1), Henry (2), Richard (3)," etc.

The Index of places notes every mention of any place referred to in these volumes. Persons knowing the residence of Wentworths, without knowing their christian names, will be assisted in searching by examining this Index of places.

A name of person or place may occur more than once on a given page.

NAMES OF WENTWORTH SOLDIERS IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION WHOSE ORIGIN IS NOT YET KNOWN, OR WHOSE SERVICES WERE NOT GIVEN IN THE PROPER PLACE.

The author collected, from various official sources, a large number of Wentworth names, the bearers of which were soldiers in the war of 1861–5. He hoped to trace the family connection of all, before this work was completely printed. He succeeded, in most cases; and their service is mentioned where their names occur. Most of the following remain unknown, and are necessarily placed here, instead of in the body of the work; and they could not appear in Index I. The author hopes to give each his proper family place in the next edition.

ELDER WILLIAM[21] WENTWORTH.

In the records of Dover, N. H., under date of 2, 2 mo., 1666, is the following:

By the Selleckmen,

Ordered that William Pomfrett shall Giue out Orders to mr. Rayner for the Seuerall Rents dew from mills to be payd to him toward his sallery as also To giue mr Coffin order to Receue 15 £ of Rent to pay Elder Wantworth for his paynes at Coechechae the last winter.

The mill sites on the several rivers had been granted to occupants subject to annual payment of "rents." These rents were appropriated to the support of ministers. Mr. Reyner was then the settled minister of Dover, and preached in the meeting-house on Dover Neck. But remote parts of the town were sometimes allowed separate public worship. According to the above vote, Elder Wentworth officiated at Cochecho, the now central part of the city of Dover. Full records would probably furnish other facts of the same kind. It seems clear that he was the first person ever employed by public authority, and, perhaps, the first person who ever preached, in the city limits proper of Dover. But church tradition says that Elder Wentworth officiated more commonly at Quamphegan, now Salmon Falls and South Berwick.
